3 faiths to come together in honor of Danny Pearl at Weizman Day School in Pasadena

Posted: 10/10/2010 04:45:51 PM PDT

Jewish, Muslim and Christian schools are uniting at 11 a.m. Tuesday for the seventh annual interfaith Daniel Pearl "Harmony for Humanity" concert at Weizman Day School, 1434 N. Altadena Drive.

The public is invited.

The concert, part of a global Daniel Pearl World Music Days Event, will bring together elementary students from Weizman, St. Mark's School in Altadena, and New Horizon School in Pasadena to sing songs of peace and understanding.

Pearl, whose life was spent in the pursuit of fellowship and understanding across cultures, was killed by terrorists in 2002 while on assignment in Pakistan. The annual event commemorates his October birthday and includes over 4,900 performances across 102 countries.

Pearl's parents, Dr. Judea and Ruth Pearl, will send a special message that will be read aloud.
